Handbook of Information under the Right to Information Act 2009

Chapter 4

Rules, Regulations, Instructions, Manual and Records, for Discharging Functions.

4.1 That, all duties / functions are discharged by officers and employees of Police Department in accordance with existing Laws, Rules & Regulations and other Local and Special Laws of the land.

Some important functions discharged by the Department through its Officers and men include:-

- implementation of laws of the land , which are in force, in letter and spirit,
- Criminal prosecution,
- maintenance of law and order,
- prevention and detection of crime,
- counter insurgency
- allied & subsidiary functions and security related matters,

These functions necessarily have a social importance and are backed by provisions of various laws duly enacted from time to time. The various powers and duties exercised and performed are laid down in the Code of Criminal Procedure, the Police Act-1927, The J&K Police Manual, and various Local and Special enactments like Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act, Public Safety Act, Arms Act, Unlawful activity Act, Essential Commodities Act and all other Laws applicable to the State of J&K to tackle specific situations. As regards the General Administrative Powers exercised in order to run the department, these powers are derived from various Rules and Notifications like the Police Act as applicable to J&K State, J&K Police Rules, Civil Service regulations, Employees Conduct Rules, J&K Classification, Control and Appeal Rules, Leave Rules etc.

The J&K Police Manual exhaustively defines powers vested with various Police ranks and formations, including powers to be exercised for smooth functioning of the department like transfers, posting etc. and powers to be exercised in consonance and harmony with the Civil Administration and Judiciary. The latter includes duties to obey orders passed in judicial capacity by the Magistrates, laying of information before the Magistrates and execution of warrants issued in magisterial capacity either by the Executive or Judicial Magistrates. Powers of investigation and arrest are vested by the Code of Criminal Procedure whereby the field agencies are obliged to take cognizance of various offences committed within their local jurisdictions, investigate the same, and bring the same to the knowledge of Magistracy so that offenders are brought to justice under the laws of the land. A full fledged Prosecution branch functions within the Police Department to assist investigations & ensure speedy and effective trial of the cases before the Courts of Law. Powers of arrest are available in the Code of Criminal Procedure, mentioned in detail in the schedules to the CrPC. However, these powers are required to and are, exercised in conformity with the guidelines laid down by Courts of the Country.
