THE IMAGE OF POLICE DEPENDS UPON THE ACTIONS AND ATTITUDE OF POLICE CONSTABLE : DGP J&K

The image building of Police depends upon the individual conduct of a Police constable, who personifies law and authority at the beat, patrol, strategic place and street, both in times of peace and crisis. With this in mind, to accomplish the goal of making J&K Police people-friendly, Shri A.K. Suri, DGP, J&K, has been making a ceaseless endeavour in pursuing the programme of interacting at the grass root level to indoctrinate the constabulary with the imperatives of remaining cool, courteous and impartial in the discharge of their duty, which shall go a long way in removing misconceptions and mistrust, rightly or wrongly existing in the minds of people and prejudicing relations between Police and public. Two open darbars were held at Police Training School (PTS), Sheeri, Baramulla and PTS, Talwara (Reasi) on March 19, by the DGP, J&K.

Addressing the jawans, the DGP said, "you have a direct face to face contact with people at grass root level, say for instance, at Police Posts, Police stations and public places etc. The whole image of the Police force depends upon your attitude towards people. Your attitude should attract appreciations". He advised the recruits to be people-friendly, after they come out from training schools to serve in the field. While discharging your duties strictly, impartially and effectively, you have to be humane in approach, the DGP added.

The DGP, who was accompanied by Shri Gopal Sharma, ADGP, Armed Police, J&K, and other senior police officers during his visit to Sheeri, Baramulla, and Talwara, Reasi, listened to the problems and requirements of the jawans patiently and assured them of an early redressal. He also reviewed the ongoing training programme of recruit constables.

وطن کی پاسپاں ٹھہری، جن کی باغباں ٹھہری
غریبوں، بے بسوں کی زندگی کی نگہباں ٹھہری
ٹھکانی جا نہیں سکتی، جو ایسی داستاں ٹھہری
ریاست جموں و کشمیر کی پولیس نام اس کا
ہمیشہ دوسروں کی خدمت بے لوث کام اس کا

نہ مقابلے میں ٹھہر پلا ہے دشمن سامنے اس کے
نہ روکے سے رُکے پھر چل پڑے جب قافلے اس کے
جہاں میں دید کے قابل رہے ہیں حوصلے اس کے
ریاست جموں و کشمیر کی پولیس نام اس کا
ہر اک فرد بشر کے دل میں ٹھہرا احترام اس کا
