POP AT SHER-I-KASHMIR POLICE ACADEMY

“The best police force is the one that is people-friendly – the police that maintain law and order and keep peace without infringing upon the rights of citizens... Ensuring the safety of the public and respecting the human rights is paramount, even during operations against terrorists”:C.M J&K

Shri Ghulam Nabi Azad, Hon'ble Chief Minister J&K, while addressing the gathering at SKPA, Udhampur on April 27

An Attestation-cum-passing out parade of 35 probationary Sub Inspectors including 17 woman officers was held at Sher-i-Kashmir Police Academy, Udhampur on April 27, 2007.

Shri Ghulam Nabi Azad, Hon'ble Chief Minister, J&K, who was the Chief Guest on the occasion, inspected the parade and took salute at an impressive march-past.

Addressing the gathering of senior civil, police officers and trainees on the occasion, Shri Ghulam Nabi Azad, Hon'ble Chief Minister J&K, while lauding the role of J&K Police in maintaining law and order under the most difficult and trying circumstances, said that, in the days ahead, J&K Police had a bigger role in the task of restoring complete normalcy. The state Police, being well conversant with the prevailing ground situation, were competent enough to shoulder the responsibility, the Chief Minister added. Hon'ble C.M expressed hope that peace process would gain momentum as the people of the state were yearning for peace and development. In the fast changing scenario, the police had to act as catalyst for creating conducive conditions so that every citizen of the state would live and work without fear, with rights protected and secured, added the Hon'ble Chief Minister. "The best police force is the one that is people friendly — the police that maintain law and order and keep peace without infringing upon the rights of citizens. Ensuring the safety of the public and respecting the human rights of citizens is paramount, even during operations against terrorists.", Hon'ble Chief Minister said.

Hon'ble Chief Minister gave away prizes and trophies to such pass outs as had excelled in various activities during the training. Probationary Sub Inspector Isha Mahajan bagged the first prize in "indoor activities" and Probationary Sub Inspector Manju Bala received the prize for "best in outdoor activities". Probationary Sub Inspector Stanzin Jigmet received the "best marks man award" and the "all round best" award went to Probationary Sub Inspector Menaz Kousar.
