J&K POLICE'S INITIATIVE FOR STRENGTHENING THE COMMUNITY-POLICE BOND

It Sponsored and organized Bharat Darshan of 100 school-going boys from Kashmir valley Under Civic Action Programme (CAP)

J&K Police sponsored a tour of 100 school-going boys (December 22, 2003-January, 06, 2004) to various historical places, ancient monuments, holy shrines and cultural heritage centres of north India, under the Civic Action Programme (CAP) — a programme adopted for strengthening the community-police bond; enlisting the peoples cooperation and tapping the bubbling energies of youth in the task of national reconstruction. J&K Armed Police exhibited the managerial acumen and organizational expertise in making the tour a grand success.

The group of 100, drawn from various rural schools of the Kashmir valley, started from Srinagar on December, 22 and was formally flagged off by Shri Gopal Sharma, DGP J&K, on December, 23 from Jammu, in three Police buses.

Speaking on the occasion the DGP said that the 2-week tour shall provide the touring boys a chance to familiarize themselves with the rich cultural, linguistic, ethnic and climatic diversity of the country. Sponsoring and organizing such tours as this helps fine tuning the relations between the Police and the community, he added.

The group returned on January 05, 2004 after visiting Golden Temple,

Jalian-wala-Bagh and Wagha border etc., in Punjab; Jamia Masjid, Himayun's Tomb, Nizam-ud-Din Dargah, Red Fort, Qutub Minar, Safdarjung Tomb, India Gate, Parliament House, Rashtrapati Bhavan, etc., in and around Jaipur; and Dargah and Ana Sagar Lake in and around Ajmir.

On January, 06, the touring boys participated in "Essay Writing" and "Drawing Competition" held in the

Lotus Temple, Gandhi Ji Museum, Janter Manter, Zoo, Indira Gandhi Museum and All India Institute of Medical Sciences, in and around Delhi; Akbar's Tomb, Sikandra, Mathura Temple, Taj Mahal, Fateh pur Sikri, Buland Darwaza, Agra fort, Bharatpur Bird Sanctuary, in and around Agra; and Hawa Mahal, Jal Mahal, Birla Mandir and Amar Fort recreation hall of District Police Lines at Jammu. The competitions were held to get feed-back from the boys, after their return from the tour, in which they evinced keen interest. The topic of the "Essay" was - "Tour to Historic places of Northern India sponsored by J&K Police" and the subject of the "Drawing" - "Any Monument or Historic place visited".

Tanveer Ahmad, student of Government High School, Zaloora (Baramulla), Mohmad Amin Rather, student of Boys High School, Gulab Bagh (Srinagar) and Rouf Ahmed Dar, student of St. Lukes Convent School, Anantnag bagged the first, second and the third prize of Rupees 2000, 1500 and 1000 respectively in the "Essay Writing". Nasir Qayoom, student of Government Higher Secondary School, Zainpora (Pulwama), Salem Jaffar, student of Government High School, Ranger (Budgam) and Tariq Ahmed, student of Government High School, Arihall (Pulwama) bagged the first, second and the third prize of Rupees 2000, 1500 and 1000 respectively in the "Drawing". Shri Gopal Sharma distributed the rewards.

DGP, J&K, Flagging-off the buses carrying the boys for the tour on December, 23, from Jammu.

The spontaneous feed-back of impressions from the boys was quite revealing—the expressions were full of emotions and satisfaction; one and all had special words of gratitude for J&K Police in fulfilling their desire to visit these places; they were no longer wary of accepting the J&K Police as their friends and would love to befriend every J&K Policeman! The touring boys were highly impressed to see the vast country they belong to and the oneness of its people despite religious, cultural, linguistic, ethnic and climatic diversity. The tour had widened their mental horizons, claimed each one of them in their feed-back notes.

The group called on the Hon'ble Chief Minister, Jenab Mufti Mohammad Sayeed on January, 06. While interacting with the boys, the Hon'ble Chief Minister desired that exchange of students from different states should be promoted in a big way to provide the youth an opportunity to see the glorious traditions of the composite culture and plurality of the nation which shall help broadening their mental horizons. It gives a new vision to the youth, he added.

DGP, J&K, flanked by ADGP, Armed (Left) and DIG, Armed, Jammu (Right) briefing the boys about the tour in the Conference Hall of PHQ at Jammu, on December, 23

ADGP (Armed), Shri Kuldeep Khoda appraised the Hon'ble Chief Minister about the tour details of the children. About the mode of selection of students for sponsoring their tour, the ADGP said that preference was given to those who belonged to poor families of remote areas.

Shri Ghulam Mohi-ud-Din Sofi, Hon'ble Minister (Forests) was also present on the occasion.

Shri Kuldeep Khoda, ADGP (Armed) has lauded the role of Shri Z.H.Chisti, DIG (Armed) Srinagar, Shri M.A. Anjum, DIG (Armed) Jammu, Shri B.A. Malla, Commandant IR- 9th, Shri M.S. In his welcome address, DGP, Shri Gopal Sharma, who is also the patron of the Police Public School, dwelt on the development profile of the institution. Two Police Public School (10+2), one each at Jammu and Srinagar have been opened by the J&K Police for achieving the high standards in academic and extra-curricular activities of the wards of the Police personnel and a new complex of similar school is coming up fast in Srinagar also, he added.

Mr. Avinash Singh, Head Boy of the school presented vote of thanks.

EXHIBITION-CUM-WORKSHOP

Shri Gopal Sharma, DGP, J&K declared the year 2004 as the year of "Scientific Investigations" on January, 05 while inaugurating a 2-day Exhibition-cum-Workshop, organized by Forensic Science Laboratory (FSL) J&K at District Police Lines, Jammu.

DGP, J&K, flanked by senior Police officers at the venue of the Exhibition-cum-workshop

Speaking on the occasion, the DGP exhorted the officers to put to optimum use the FSL equipment for the collection and preservation of evidence. "Circumstantial evidence can be erratic, eye witness may falter but it is the scientific evidence that will stand by as authentic", the DGP said. He called upon the Director, FSL to organize workshops in other districts like Rajouri, Poonch, Kathua, Udhampur and Doda.

Earlier, Shri A.R. Khan, IGP Crime & Railways said that J&K FSL, set up 37 years ago, is steadily marching towards its commitment to meet the new challenges of crime. He thanked the DGP for taking keen interest in the development and expansion of FSL.

The function was attended by senior officers including Shri Kuldeep Khoda, Addl. DG (Armed Police), Dr. Ashok Bhan, ADGP (CID), Shri Javid Mukhdoomi IGP Hqrs., Shri P.L. Gupta, IGP Jammu Zone and Shri M.A. Anjum DIG (Armed).

TRAFFIC MANAGEMENT SYSTEM BEING STREAMLINED: IGP (TRAFFIC)

Traffic Enforcement and Regulation wing of J&K Police has formulated a plan for implementation to ensure further improvement in road safety in the state of J&K. This was disclosed by Shri Ram Lubhaya, IGP (Traffic) at a press conference in Srinagar on January, 10, during the 15th Road Safety Week held in the state. The salient features of the plan to improve the system include removing of such chronic traffic hazards as are adversely affecting the traffic management, installing of Electronic Signal Devices in the capital cities of Jammu and Srinagar, clearing of encroachments on the main roads, removing of unauthorized speed breakers, making the Road Safety Awareness Programme a regular feature and coordinating the voluntary effort of various agencies including NGOs, students and the members of the society.

SHRI J.A. MUKHDOOMI, IGP (HEADQUARTER) PARTICIPATES IN "SENIOR CRISIS MANAGEMENT SEMINAR" IN WASHINGTON DC

...It was a defining moment for J&K Police when the memento presented by it to the US State Department sparked in its pristine glory, writes Javid Mukhdoomi, IPS

I was chosen to be a member of Indian delegation comprising of 19 Officers headed by Shri B.B. Mishra, Special Secretary, MHA, GOI, to participate in "Senior Crisis Management Seminar" in Washington DC from November, 10 to 14, 2003. At the time of departure, the DGP, J&K had desired me to carry along a memento signifying J&K Police Colours so that the same could be presented to appropriate Officer at Washington DC. On reaching Delhi, in preparation of my visit to USA, I handed over J&K Police memento to the leader of Indian delegation for its presentation to his counterpart in the US administration.

Visiting USA, first time in life, was an experience as the Seminar was quite informative and educative. It was a defining moment for J&K Police when the memento presented by it to the US State Department sparked in its pristine glory. It was a rare occasion and perhaps the first of its kind by any state Police organisation in India to have notched that notable distinction!
