Jammu and Kashmir Police Wives Welfare Association (JKPWWA) organized 17th police-public mela at J&K Police Sports stadium, Gulshan Ground Jammu on February 21, 2010.

The day long Mela was inaugurated by Shri Samuel Verghese, IAS Financial Commissioner (Home), J&K with lighting of the traditional lamp.

While speaking on the inaugural function of the mela, the Financial Commissioner (Home) said that during past 20 years police families have suffered a lot and it was the prime duty of all sections of the society to take care of wards of martyrs. While appreciating the role of Jammu and Kashmir Police Wives Welfare Association for organizing such melas, he said these melas have brought police and public together, besides generating resources for the welfare schemes, adopted by the police department for the families of the martyrs.

Shri Samuel Verghese further stressed upon the ranks of Jammu and Kashmir Police to introduce more schemes for the welfare of the wards/families of those police personnel who sacrificed their precious lives while combating militancy in the State to save the life and property of the people of the state and preserve the integrity and unity of the country.

The Mela was attended by a large number of people from all walks of life and evinced great interest in the purchase of goods put for sale by stall holders.

Earlier while speaking on the occasion, Shri Kuldeep Khoda IPS DGP J&K said that the receipts realized from such Melas are utilized for the welfare of families of police martyrs. He further said that the organization was providing facilities to children for coaching in professional entrance and competitive examinations.

The DGP said that such occasions have served as a bridge to fill the gap between the police and public created due to militancy.

Earlier, welcoming the Chief Guest, the Chairperson, Police Wives Welfare Association, Dr. Indu Kaul Khoda apprised the Chief Guest about the aims and objectives of organizing such Melas.

The inaugural function, among others was attended by ADG CID Shri K. Rajendra Kumar IPS, Inspectors General of Police S/Shri Ram Lubhaya IPS, S. Gopal Reddy IPS, Dilbag Singh IPS, Raja Aijaz Ali IPS, Sheikh Owais Ahmad IPS, A.K Gupta IPS, Mohammad Amin Shah IPS,
