HOME MINISTER OF INDIA COMPLIMENTED J&K POLICE

Shri P Chidambaram, Hon'ble Home Minister of India has complimented the J&K Police and CRPF for conducting successful operation against militants in Srinagar on January 06, 2010.

In this context, the text of the statement issued on January 08, 2010 by Shri P. Chidambaram, Hon'ble Home Minister of India through Press Information Bureau is reproduced below:-

"Based on intelligence inputs the J&K Police were on alert in Srinagar on Wednesday January 06, 2010. While they were conducting frisk and search operations, two militants opened fire and then fled into a nearby building. In the initial burst of fire, one policeman was killed and 11 persons were injured. One of the civilian later succumbed to his injuries.

The alert J&K Police assisted by CRPF immediately swung into action. In a brilliant operation, executed with great skill and patience, they neutralized the two militants without suffering any casualties. They also evacuated nearly 600 civilians to safety. It is note worthy that the J&K Police and the CRPF conducted the operations without calling upon the NSG or the special forces of the army.

The two militants who were killed were in communication with their handlers outside India. The incident highlights the fact that the country, especially Jammu and Kashmir, remains vulnerable to militant attacks sponsored by forces from across the border. At the same time, our capacity to neutralize a militant attack has also increased considerably. I would emphasize once again that the country, especially the security forces, must maintain a high level of vigilance, but there is no cause for panic. We must remain calm and confident that our security forces can face any challenge.

I compliment the J&K Police and the CRPF for the successful operation in Srinagar. I offer my sincere condolence to the families of two victims of the attack".

Shri Kuldeep Khoda IPS DGP J&K and Shri Farooq Ahmad IPS IGP Kashmir honouring the jawans and officers who took active part in combating the attack by militants at Lal Chowk Srinagar on January 06, 2010. 04 Gallant personnel of J&K Police were awarded out of turn promotion and 15 others recommended for gallantry awards for exhibiting exemplary courage while tackling the situation during the encounter.

ZPHQ KASHMIR ORGANIZED ONE DAY TRAINING WORKSHOP FOR MHCs

One day training workshop of Mohrir Head Constables (MHCs) of Central Kashmir Range was organized by Zonal Police Headquarters Kashmir Zone on January 31, 2010.

The Workshop attended by senior police/prosecuting officers, 52 MHCs of CKR and guest lecturers was presided over by Shri Farooq Ahmad IPS IGP Kashmir.

While addressing the participants, the IGP Kashmir said that aim of the workshop is to refresh the roles and responsibilities of the MHCs in our system of policing so that they can serve the people and create a cordial relation between police and public.

Terming the MHC as the corner stone of the policing who plays a great role in building police public relations, the IGP said, MHC is a full time job and not a rotational one. Such workshops will be held at Range levels in Kashmir zone- the IGP added.

During the day long workshop lectures were presented by different speakers on various topics concerning the police station and role of MHC.

Shri H.K Lohia IPS DIG CKR, provided very useful tips and information about maintenance of case property, government property, briefing-debriefing of constabulary, check up of lock up and behavior with inmates.

Shri Javaid Reyaz IPS SSP Srinagar, and Shri V K Bridi SP East, Srinagar while speaking on the occasion provided fruitful information to the MHCs besides highlighting the significance of such workshops in the state. The other topics presented and discussed by the speakers were "Duties and responsibilities of MHCs", Common errors in police station records such as FIRs, remands, challans, motor accident claims, and recording of statements under section 164-A CrPC", "Police practical work of MHC", "Maintenance of police records" and "public perception of police."

A book in Urdu titled Rehnima-i-Police on "police work" was distributed among the MHCs.

DGP J&K INAUGURATED MULTI STOREY BUILDING AT NAWABAD

Shri Kuldeep Khoda IPS DGP J&K inaugurated a multi storey building at Nawabad on January 20, 2010.

The building consisting of 5 barracks and 14 rooms with modern facilities has been constructed at a cost of Rs.1.35 crore by the Jammu and Kashmir Police Housing Corporation in a record period of ten months. The building will accommodate, City Police Component, Police Sub-Division and a Police Station.

While Speaking on the occasion, the DGP said that J&K Police Organization has launched an ambitious modernization programme throughout the state which also includes creation of more accommodation for jawans and officers of department. He said, the department is fully aware about the circumstances in which police is performing its duties and every possible step is being taken to improve their working places.

The DGP enjoined upon the concerned engineers and officers of

Shri Kuldeep Khoda IPS DGP J&K inaugurating the newly constructed three storey police building at Nawabad, Jammu on January 20, 2010

Police Housing Corporation that while preparing plans for construction of new buildings of the department, basic requirements of jawans should always be kept in mind. During the recent years manpower in the department has been strengthened manifolds by raising more IRP battalions which has necessitated much more accommodation for the police force. He added that the department is constructing several new buildings across the state to meet the housing requirements.

Earlier, Shri Ravinder Kotwal IPS IGP Managing Director PHC J&K briefed the DGP about the construction of this multi storey building and the facilities developed for the jawans. He said that barracks constructed in the complex would accommodate more than 250 jawans comfortably.

S/Shri K.Rajendra Kumar IPS ADGP CID J&K, Ram Lubhaya IPS IGP Security J&K, S.Gopal Reddy IPS IGP Home guards/Civil Defence & Auxiliary Police J&K Raja Aijaz Ali IPS IGP Crime J&K, A.K Gupta IPS IGP Jammu Zone and Dr. B.Srinivas IPS IGP Headquarters PHQ J&K, Farooq Khan IPS DIG Jammu-Samba-Kathua Range, Alok Puri IPS DIG Administration PHQ J&K, T.Punchok IPS DIG Armed Jammu and other police officers were also present during the inaugural ceremony of the building

DGP J&K INSPECTED COMMANDO TRAINING SCHOOL LETHPORA (PULWAMA)

During his visit to South Kashmir Range on January 22, 2010, Shri Kuldeep Khoda IPS DGP J&K accompanied by other senior police officers including Shri Ravinder Kotwal IPS IGP/Managing Director Police Housing Corporation J&K, Shri Farooq Ahmad IPS IGP Kashmir Zone, Shri K.K Saini IPS DIG, South Kashmir Range (SKR) and Shri Bashir Ahmad Khan SP Awantipora inspected Police Commando Training School Lethpora (District Pulwama).

During inspection, the DGP took stock of the ongoing construction works and the facilities available in the Training school where more than 600 trainees who have recently been recruited in the department, are undergoing basic training. While speaking on the occasion, the DGP said that the department is taking wholehearted interest in giving new orientation to the training initiatives for acquainting its men with the latest skills for better police functioning and with this objective in mind, the commando training school has been made functional from this year.

The advanced domain knowledge and special technological skills are imperative to overcome the latest challenges faced by the Jammu and Kashmir Police. "We had to get such trainings from the institutes outside the state and now we are capable to start reoriented training courses in the area like crime detection and anti-terrorism in our state—the DGP added.

Giving details of the ongoing construction work at Lethpora, Shri Ravinder Kotwal IPS Managing Director, Police Housing Corporation J&K said that the project has been taken up in the year 2006, with an estimated cost of Rs.30 crore, out of which Rs.22.70 crore have been spent on the construction of office as well as residential accommodation for the jawans and the staff. The project was under taken keeping in view the latest requirements, like indoor and outdoor stadium, residential quarters for men and officers, administrative blocks, academic accommodation and officers mess the MD added.

31 SPOs APPOINTED AS CONSTABLES IN SOUTH KASHMIR

Shri Kuldeep Khoda IPS DGP J&K presented the appointment orders of Constables to 31 SPOs of South Kashmir Range at a special function held at DPL Pulwama on January 07, 2010.

The sanction for conversion of these SPOs as constables was recently accorded by the department after Government allowed for relaxation in their age and qualification, on the basis of their excellent performance.

While handing over the appointment orders of constables to nine SPOs from district Anantnag, eight from Pulwama and seven each from Kulgam and Awantipora area of South Kashmir, the DGP said that these SPOs have exhibited exemplary performance while fighting the militancy in tough and extremely hostile conditions by putting their life at stake besides dealing with the law and order situation and ensuring to avert collateral damages and save the life and property of common citizens in different operations at various places.

The DGP J&K further added that SPOs of Jammu and Kashmir Police exhibiting exemplary performance in bringing peace in the state would be rewarded suitably in the same way.
