CHIEF MINISTER LAUDS J&K POLICE

Chief Minister, Dr. Farooq Abdullah, has lauded

Chief Minister Dr. Farooq Abdullah

the role of J&K Police in combating militancy and maintaining law and order in difficult circumstances in the state. While addressing a passing-outparade of 608 constables of J&K Police at Police Training College Jharoda Kalan,

Delhi on June 18, Dr. Abdullah thanked Delhi Police for helping out the state Police in training these constables. He announced a grant of Rs. 2 Lacs for the welfare fund of Delhi Police. The Delhi Police band was also sanctioned a reward of Rs. 10, 000. DGP J&K, Shri Gurbachan Jagat and Commissioner of Police, Delhi, Shri V.N. Singh were present on the occasion. This group of trainees of Executive Police is part of a batch of 4600 recruit constables who are under training in and outside the state including about 1200 recruit constables of IR Battalions. The remaining constable trainees will passout during the month of July. This additional manpower will enable J&K Police to partly tide over the shortage of staff in sensitive Police Stations, STF and the Armed Police.
