Jubilant Ram Singh and Sajjad Haider of J&K Police rejoicing the victory at the base camp after conquering Mount Everest

"After being flagged off by our DGP Shri Kuldeep Khoda at Jammu on March 19, 2008 for Mount Everest Expedition-2008, we joined the expedition team at Delhi next day. Thereafter we went to final expedition Kathmandu where from we went to base camp at the height of 17500 feet for acclimatization.

Ram Singh

It took roughly two months for scaling the world's highest summit. "On May 22 at 0630 hours when I reached on the top of the peak and unfurled the National, State & J&K Police flags, it was just like a dream coming true for me". We stayed for ten minutes on the top of the peak and the view was mesmerizing. Maximum of the time I remained on the top of the world's highest summit, I prayed and thanked Almighty for everything I was feeling on this occasion. With this feat I also realize that even women can achieve anything if they have the determination".....Ram Singh
