DGP, J&K Inaugurating the J&K Police website at the Police Headquarters, Jammu on Feb. 21.

Shri Gopal Sharma, DGP inaugurated the J&K Police Website, Office automation system and Intranet e-mailing service at Police Headquarters, Jammu on February, 21.

The website shall serve as a communication channel for disseminating information about J&K Police regarding Organization and Administration, Supreme sacrifices, Honours and Awards, Trainings modernization and success stories. Besides, "J&K Police Newsletter", "Notices inviting Tenders", day-to-day important events, various aspects of police functioning and telephone numbers of senior Police officers etc. shall also be available from the website.

Connecting 21 police districts with the Police Headquarters, in the initial phase, through Intranet e-mailing Service would help increase the efficiency and productivity of the department in the key areas of management of manpower, crime analysis and accounts matters etc.

Sh. P.S.Gill, ADGP, Home Guards, Civil Defence and Auxiliary Police, Shri Kuldeep Khoda, ADGP Armed, Shri Madan Lal, ADGP Security, Dr. A.K. Bhan, ADGP CID, Shri Masud. A.Choudhary, ADGP, PHQ, Dr. S.P.Vaid, IGP, Modernisation, Shri A.R.Khan, IGP, Crime and Railways, Shri Ram Lubhaya, IGP, Traffic, Shri P.K.Gupta, IGP, CID, Raja Aijaz Ali, Director Police Telecommunication, Shri Farooq Ahmed, DIG, Jammu-Kathua Range, Shri M.A.Anjum, DIG (Armed Police, Jammu and Shri H.K.Lohia, DIG, Adm. PHQ were among those present on the occasion.

Speaking on the occasion, the DGP analysed the implications of technological boom and said that the application of emerging communication technologies like internet and multimedia communication in Police working is of paramount importance to meet the challenges. "We are in the very early stages of site development. We will renovate the content areas and introduce new features to provide information about the subjects of interest that are more detailed, and utilize the internet as information sharing and research tool", the DGP added.

Dr. S.P.Vaid, IG, Modernisation highlighted the need for the launching of the website, Office Automation System and Intranet e-mailing Service.

INITIATIVE FOR YOUTH-TO-YOUTH INTERACTION

With an eye on fine tuning the relationship, understanding each other's religious, linguistic, cultural and ethnic character and to beef-up the inter-state/inter-regional harmony, J&K Police organized and sponsored the tour of 26-member girl student's contingent of Maharani College University, Jaipur (Rajasthan) to J&K state under the Civic Action Programme.

Hon'ble Chief Minister J&K (Centre), DGP, J&K (Right) and Vice Chancellor Jammu University (left) at the function to felicitate the visiting girls at Jammu on Jan 22

The 26-member girl student's contingent accompanied by Prof. Raka Kamal, Principal of the college, Dr. Asha Jain, Dr. Seema Parveen and Dr. O.N.Vyas, all faculty members of the college, called on the Director General of Police, Shri Gopal Sharma at the Police Headquarters, Jammu, on January, 22.

In the course of interaction with the visiting students, the DGP said that the tour would help them explore knowledge about the situation on ground in the state of Jammu and Kashmir. The interaction with other girl students in the state would also help them understand each other, which is essential for exploding the myths and building harmonious relations, the DGP added. "During your sojourn in the state, I hope that you shall enjoy and cherish the scenic and cultural beauty and

... AND THEY LEFT WITH EVERLASTING MEMORIES OF THE PARADISE ON EARTH

While leaving for Kashmir valley from Jammu, element of fear and scare —reflecting the perceived feeling of apprehensions in their minds— written in the script of cheerlessness —loomed large on their faces. Misconceived security apprehensions on their part could have been the reason for this. Again, after their sojourn in Kashmir valley, while readying to leave for their homes, they looked sad—with tears in their eyes. This time the reason was different: It was the reflection of the emotional attachment they had developed with the state and the love and affection of the people they met with and interacted with in the valley; their myths had exploded and the perceived feeling of apprehensions buried. The beauty of Kashmir, hospitality and the warmth of its natives had enchanted them —they wanted to have more of it! Nevertheless— to part is to meet and to meet is to part —this is the sad story of human heart...And they left with everlasting memories of the paradise on earth. They discovered that the valley was a place where one can live peacefully!

- ❖ "...We will never forget the love, affection and warmth that we received in the state..." — Ms. Anjuman Parveen
- ❖ "...We enjoyed the skiing a lot and bought kangris as souvenirs. The kangris would always remind us of the chilly climate as also the warmth we received from the people of the state..." — Ms. Hansa Shekhawat
- ❖ "...The situation has improved a lot in the state and now it has become like any other state of the country. During all these days, we never felt that we were in a state where terrorist activities had become a day- to- day affair..." — Ms. Palvi Jain
- ❖ "...We tell our parents and friends about the beauty of Jammu and Kashmir and ask them to visit the state in the coming summer season as peace had returned to a great extent..." — Ms. Priyanka
- ❖ "...During the days of my stay in the valley, I found it a place where one can live peacefully..." — Ms. Suman.

During their sojourn in the state, the visiting students attended a Winter Sports Training Camp at Gulmarg, interacted with other girl students in Kashmir valley and Jammu and visited the scenic places and historical monuments in the state. They also visited the International border in the Suchetgarh sector, where they interacted with Pakistan Rangers and the BSF. The visiting students also interacted with the apprehended terrorists in police custody during their visits to various police establishments as also the armouries, where they saw the weapons recovered by the police from the terrorists.

A special function was organized in the lawns of GOs Mess, Jammu to give the visiting students a warm send-off on February 5. Dr. Sudhir.S. Bloeria, Chief Secretary J&K was the Chief Guest on the occasion. Mementos and gifts were presented to the visiting students by the Chief Secretary, DGP, J&K and Mrs. Vipra Sharma, wife of Shri Gopal Sharma, DGP. The function was marked by the presentation of cultural show by the J&K Police cultural team as also the visiting girls.

The annual issue of J&K Police Newsletter was also released by the Chief Secretary at the said function.
