POLICE-PUBLIC MEETS ORGANIZED

In an attempt to reduce the gap between police and public thereby building a strong relation and secure maximum result oriented cooperation from public to maintain law and order, police-public meets are being organized by J&K police at various levels.

Police-Public meets chaired by Shri Manohar Singh SSP Jammu were organized at Police Station Bishnah, Beli Charana and Gangyal on October 02, October 19 and October 22 respectively. During these meetings, SSP Jammu addressed the gatherings at respective places, listened to their grievances and issued on spot instructions to the concerned SHOs for redressal of genuine issues of the masses. The SSP also sought active cooperation and healthy suggestions from the public to maintain peace and order and crime free atmosphere in their respective areas. While complimenting the participants for their cooperation to police during crucial times for maintaining communal harmony, Shri Manohar Singh SSP Jammu assured the people that Jammu Police was committed for conducting free, fair and peaceful elections. He briefed the public regarding the concerted efforts being made by anti-national elements and external agencies to create terror and divide the composite culture of our people by resorting to subversive activities and requested them to remain extra vigilant and immediately inform about any suspicious object or person. SSP Jammu stressed upon the general public about the need to go for the prior verifications of the tenants, servants, sale and purchase of vehicles and land to avoid any mischief.

The SSP assured that the Village Defence Committees are being strengthened so that they act as a force multiplier for the safety and security of the people. The public representatives, who spoke on the occasions, unanimously spoke about the need to foster a lasting partnership between the police and the public especially in view of the recent agitation and the coming elections. The meeting was attended by prominent citizens, Sarpanches and panches, religious leaders, local businessmen, traders and local inhabitants of the respective areas.

A similar Police public-meet organized by J&K Police at Nowshera on October 18, 2008 was chaired by Shri Romesh Kumar Bhat Addl. SP Nowshera. People belonging to different walks of life besides retired police officers attended the function. During his address Addl. SP Nowshera highlighted the importance of cooperation between the civil society and law enforcing agencies for maintaining the atmosphere of peace & tranquility in the region. He also stressed upon the participants for redressing the problems of the general masses and better cooperation between police and public especially isolating anti-national and anti-social elements in the town.
