While speaking on the Police Commemoration Day, the DGP, J&K said that the day is being observed throughout the country as a mark of homage to the 10 CRPF personnel who laid down their lives on October 21, 1959 while repulsing the Chinese attack at Hot Springs in Ladakh region of J&K. He said that nearly 5300 security forces personnel including 900 men and officers of J&K Police have laid down their lives while fighting militancy in the state during the last two decades of turmoil.

From September 01, 2008 to August 31, 2009, among the 821 police and other security forces personnel across the country who have laid down their lives while defending the sovereignty and integrity of the nation, 36 martyrs are from J&K Police- the DGP said. He further said that various welfare measures have been taken for the families of the J&K Police martyrs which include an immediate special relief of Rs.6 lakh out of police welfare fund, ex-gratia relief of Rs.5 lakh, Rs.7,000 in each case under Saveria Scheme, scholarships to the wards of police martyrs and free education to wards of police martyrs in police public schools.

An amount of Rs.9.25 crore was paid to the next of kins of police personnel last year as special welfare relief out of police welfare fund and during the current year Rs.5.16 crore have been spent on this account. Rs.1.84 crore were paid to the next of kin of police martyrs as ex-gratia relief last year and Rs.1.25 crore have been paid on this account this year.

For the welfare of injured police personnel, Rs.6.55 lakh were paid to injured cops last year while the figure stood at Rs.2.35 lakh this year. Besides, 478 children of police martyrs were employed in the police department.

On augmentation of police force, five Indian Reserve Police (IRP) Battalions have been created in the state and the Government has also accorded sanction to the creation of more than 7000 posts in traffic, railways and district police and filling up these posts have been made on fast track recruitment basis. The Government has also accorded approval to various relaxations for special police officers (SPOs) for their conversion or appointment as constables or followers in the police department, which include 15 percent reservation and relaxation in age and educational qualification.
