JAVED FAROOQUI DOES J&K POLICE PROUD

Jammu and Kashmir Police, as usual, played a pivotal role in making successful this year's Amarnath Ji Yatra. One instance of service to needy has been acknowledged by Shri S. K. Shah, son of pilgrim from Baroda, Shri Amar Nath Shah, who expired near the Holy cave on August 06. The police personnel carried the dead body on their shoulders on a makeshift coffin up to the first road point. Mr Shah has sent a cheque of Rs. 5,000 for Police welfare fund as a token of gratitude. In his letter, he has lauded the role of J&K Police despite several odds and difficult conditions, and has praised Policemen for doing a remarkable job in the state which needs encouragement by the countrymen. He has acknowledged the help and succor provided in his hour of grief by Shri Javed Farooqui, DySP PCR, Srinagar. Well done Javed!
